Pirate Dress Code

ACROSS
1. Used to protect feet mostly while on land
2. A heavy woolen fabric
3. A sash made of fine fabric
4. A sign of wealth, thought to help with sea sickness
5. A heavy coat
6. Tight fitting pants
7. A woolen cap
8. Expensive decorated coats worn on land
9. Leg coverings made of wool
10. A woolen cap
11. Expensive decorated coats worn on land
12. Favored by pirate captains, these head coverings were usually stolen
13. A puffy sleeved garment usually worn on land
14. A sleeveless coat once called a jerkin
15. A heavy curves fighting sword
16. Also known as a cutlass
17. Jewelry made of gold, silver, jewels, and pearls
18. Bright mismatched pattern and colored clothing
19. This item kept sweat out of a pirate's eyes
20. Trousers usually worn by English pirates

DOWN
1. A pistol holder
2. A hat with three edges, usually made of leather
3. A heavy woolen fabric
4. A sash made of fine fabric
5. A sign of wealth, thought to help with sea sickness
6. Expensive decorated coats worn on land
7. Blackbeard is said to have tied black ones of these to his beard
8. Tight fitting pants
9. Leg coverings made of wool
10. A woolen cap
11. Expensive decorated coats worn on land
12. Favored by pirate captains, these head coverings were usually stolen
13. A puffy sleeved garment usually worn on land
14. A sleeveless coat once called a jerkin
15. A heavy curves fighting sword
16. Also known as a cutlass
17. Jewelry made of gold, silver, jewels, and pearls
18. Bright mismatched pattern and colored clothing
19. This item kept sweat out of a pirate's eyes
20. Trousers usually worn by English pirates